

Piper Sandler Expands Energy Equity Research with the Addition of Derek Podhaizer

October 28, 2024

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Oct. 28, 2024-- Piper Sandler Companies (NYSE: PIPR), a leading investment bank, is pleased to announce the addition of Derek Podhaizer as a director and senior research analyst to its energy equity research team. Podhaizer will focus his coverage on the oilfield services sector and be based in the New York office.

"We are pleased to welcome Derek to the team. Oilfield services is a strategic focus for Piper Sandler and we are proud to be one of few firms who have this dedicated coverage. Derek's decade of experience and strong relationships with companies and institutional clients is something we look forward to leveraging as we continue building a strong energy platform," said Michael Cox, co-head of global equities at Piper Sandler.

Podhaizer joins the firm from Barclays where he was a vice president for their oilfield services equity research team for 10 years. He led coverage of the North America oilfield services and geothermal markets. Prior to Barclays, he was an audit senior assistant at Deloitte. Podhaizer received both his bachelor's degree and master's degree from Fairfield University.
