

Piper Sandler Expands Restructuring Group With the Addition of John D'Amico

June 29, 2026

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jun. 29, 2026-- Piper Sandler Companies (NYSE: PIPR), a leading investment bank, is pleased to announce the addition of John D'Amico as a managing director in the Piper Sandler restructuring group. D'Amico will be focused on advising a broad range of clients in complex restructurings and special situation transactions.

With approximately 25 years of investment banking and corporate advisory experience, D'Amico has advised companies, boards of directors, official and ad hoc creditor committees, labor unions and other stakeholders across multiple industries in complex Chapter 11 and out-of-court restructurings, mergers and acquisitions, financing and special situation transactions.

"We are excited to welcome John to Piper Sandler. His track record of delivering results for stakeholders navigating complex situations will be invaluable as we continue to grow the firm's restructuring practice," said Matthew Mintzer, managing director and global co-head of the Piper Sandler restructuring group.

"I'm thrilled to join Piper Sandler and the talented group of professionals on the restructuring team. The firm's excellent restructuring platform and its ability to deliver creative solutions for clients make this an ideal franchise for me to join," said D'Amico.

Prior to joining Piper Sandler, D'Amico was a senior member of the restructuring groups of Miller Buckfire and Jefferies. Prior to that, he was a director of business development at Clear Channel Communications focusing on M&A and real estate investments. He began his career as an investment banker covering media & entertainment at ING Barings Furman Selz. He holds a Master of Business Administration degree from New York University and a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Michigan.
